Soapstone Sequoia

Real woods or stones don't repeat!

A décor repeat is typically the giveaway factor of using HPL in large scale application areas. This is because a regular HPL décor repeat is approximately 600 – 750 mm wide which is only able to fit usual applications sizes like worktops or kitchen doors.

To solve this, Formica Group has raised the bar with the use of innovative printing technology, delivering a collection of large scale designs that captures every little nuance of natural stone in true scale without the repetition of décor pattern!
